

Community and Social Impact

At Gadens, we believe doing the right thing means making a meaningful impact for our clients, our communities, and the planet. Our people are committed to living our values every day, embracing sustainability and social responsibility as essential to our work. By expanding access to justice and embedding purpose into everything we do, we help people succeed in a complex world.

Pro bono legal services

220
lawyers participated in pro bono legal services

11
years
as a signatory to the Australian Pro Bono Centre's national pro bono target

Over
13,600
total hours

40.78
average hours
per lawyer

240
pro bono files opened

Community engagement

Volunteers
20% of Gadens staff volunteer at Ronald McDonald House, OzHarvest and
Our Village

6
secondments
to community
legal centres

15
partnerships
with community legal centres across the Country

Social impact

Actively working to achieve Climate Active Carbon
Neutral certification
across all our offices

Established
a national
First Nations
Engagement
Group

Hosted a range of reconciliation
events and cultural awareness
training

Cassandra Krylov
Head of Sustainable Business
+61 3 9612 8236
+61 423 414 191
cassandra.krylov@gadens.com