

OUR PEOPLE

SUMMARY AND HIGHLIGHTS:

Gadens' Employee Program is aligned with our strategic intent of being an employer of choice. Priority areas are:

- Flexibility – We recognise that staff need to achieve an effective balance between their work and other commitments, and that a flexible workplace is essential to attracting and retaining high performing people.
- Diversity – We engage with staff to create an environment that promotes individuality and diversity. Our Indigenous Intern Program has been operating for over ten years (to date we have employed over 30 interns). We signed up to the CareerTrackers 10x10 Program.
- Health and wellbeing – Our wellbeing initiatives support a healthy and balanced lifestyle, providing opportunities for staff to mentally and physically unwind through participation in a range of activities.
- Learning and development – Our L&D Framework has been designed to deliver focused, career-long L&D to improve skills at all levels and support career progression. This covers technical and business skills training.
- Corporate social responsibility – We maintain a culture of sustainability and sound corporate responsibility. We assist the communities in which we live and work, enhance access to the legal system and embrace social responsibility. We also provide many employee benefits.

OUR ENVIRONMENT

SUMMARY AND HIGHLIGHTS:

Gadens aims to be recognised as an environmentally responsible business that respects the environment and communities in which it operates. We believe our commitment to managing our operations in an environmentally sustainable manner will maximise value for the firm and all our stakeholders.

We are committed to minimising adverse environmental impacts and reducing our environmental footprint by continually reviewing operations and improving the efficiency of our natural resource consumption.

Our initiatives are focused around:

- Reducing our power consumption;
- Reducing paper usage or only using carbon neutral, acid-free paper.
- Moving towards a more electronic way of working across the firm.
- Ensuring our key, discretionary suppliers are adopting sustainable business practices wherever possible.
- Improving our waste management and recycling practices.

gadens

Headcount: 630 (FTE) Floor Area: 16,073m²

Gadens is a leading, independent Australian law firm with offices in Adelaide, Brisbane, Melbourne and Sydney. We have over 80 partners and 630 staff across Australia. Our vision is to be a preminent, independent firm renowned for providing outstanding client service, innovative solutions and value.

Our core values are the firm's foundation and reflect the essence and character of the firm – they define how we interact with one another and our clients. We promote individuality and diversity while instilling pride in the firm and our values, are committed to equality in the workplace and achieving gender pay parity. We strive to create a culture where the principles of sustainability and sound corporate responsibility are embraced and lived by our people every day. We seek to make a difference in the world by contributing to the development of the communities in which we live and work. We are committed to giving back, and our people participate in projects that make a difference.

The firm provides additional support by way of donations, group participation and direct financial contribution.

We recognise the importance of fostering sustainable communities, minimising our impact on the environment and taking responsibility for our environmental footprint.

OUR GOVERNANCE

SUMMARY AND HIGHLIGHTS:

Gadens has an Operations and Risk Management Framework that is underpinned by our values and prescribes our approach to corporate governance, risk management and compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. The framework incorporates extensive business continuity and disaster recovery protocols. Our interaction with clients, contractors and suppliers is guided by this framework.

For each decision that is to be made, we undertake an analysis of the impact that a particular risk or group of risks may have on the firm's operations, and ensure that mitigating controls and / or actions are put in place to minimise such impact.

In support of our actions, we have a significant number of policies and procedures in place that govern the firm and ensure our compliance with all relevant laws. Our Operations and Risk Management Framework covers the following areas:

- Governance and Ethics,
- Workplace Health and Safety (WHS),
- Quality,
- Sustainability,
- Procurement, and
- Business Continuity.

Our Boards and Management Teams operate within the above governance framework and are accountable for their respective areas of responsibility. Equity and other partner meetings are held as required.

OUR COMMUNITY

SUMMARY AND HIGHLIGHTS:

As a law firm, our privileged professional standing confers a responsibility to contribute to the general betterment of our community. This includes our professional and ethical responsibility to enhance access to the legal system.

We also have a responsibility to assist disadvantaged and marginalised people within the communities in which we live and work.

We are signatories to the Australian Pro Bono Centre's Target, and we encourage staff across all areas and levels of our firm to proactively undertake pro bono work and participate in community assistance initiatives.

The five key priority areas nationally that form the basis of our pro bono program are:

- Homelessness
- Indigenous Australians
- Refugees and asylum seekers
- Women and children in need
- Mental health

Gadens has a long history of supporting emerging and established artists. Our involvement with the arts extends beyond traditional forms of corporate support such as sponsorships and corporate art collections, to the integration of the arts into many facets of the firm. Our approach to the arts is based on a philosophy of creative engagement designed to encourage our people to think outside the box and to feel comfortable sharing ideas.
